WELCOME!

We are delighted that you have chosen to worship with us at St. Alban's. We are blessed by your presence. In this booklet you will find the order of the liturgy. In worship, we use the American Book of Common Prayer (1928 Edition) which is found in the pews. The hymns listed here and on the hymn board in the front of the church are found in the Red Hymnals in your pew. Our Bible readings are provided in this bulletin and Bibles are in your pew if you prefer to look up the passages.

Nursery care is available in Kimsey Hall Parish House. Please ask an usher for directions to our Nursery.

(R) Lord, I am not worthy that Thou shouldst come under my roof, but speak the word only and my soul shall be healed. (3 times)

St. James 1:22-27 BCP 176

Be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: for he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed. If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain. Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

St. John 16:23-33 BCP 176

Verily, Verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you. Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full. These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father. At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you: for the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God. I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father. His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb. Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God. Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe? Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me. These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

Fifth Sunday after Easter

Ezekiel 34:25-31

I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land: and they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods. And I will make them and the places round about my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his season; there shall be showers of blessing. And the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those that served themselves of them. And they shall no more be a prey to the heathen, neither shall the beast of the land devour them; but they shall dwell safely, and none shall make them afraid. And I will raise up for them a plant of renown, and they shall be no more consumed with hunger in the land, neither bear the shame of the heathen any more. Thus shall they know that I the LORD their God am with them, and that they, even the house of Israel, are my people, saith the Lord GOD. And ye my flock, the flock of my pasture, are men, and I am your God, saith the Lord GOD.

This is our first of many summer baby showers where we can enjoy a time of fellowship and celebration. If you are interested in helping ahead of time please contact Kelli Brodrecht.

CLEANING THE CHURCH: As we grow and change as a church family, it falls to us to keep our “home” clean. And while The Ecclesial School is graciously cleaning our sanctuary at the end of each school week, we could benefit from a bit of “tidying” after our Sunday worship. In the coming weeks and months, we are asking families to sign up on the bulletin board and claim a week to remain after the 10:15 service to straighten pews and books, collect random papers and bulletins, replenish supplies, take out the trash, etc. This would not be a long or onerous task, but would greatly bless the family of God and teach our children to care for their church home. Please find the details on the bulletin board and in the narthex closet.

“ROGATION” SUNDAY AND ROGATIONTIDE: According to old Anglican custom, the Sunday before the feast of the Ascension (and the three days following) are kept as a minor season of fasting in the Calendar known as “Rogationtide.” The name derives from the Latin, rogare, “to ask, beseech; pray for.” Originally, this period of the year was consecrated particularly to prayers for temperate weather and rains sufficient for the early growth of crops. Joined to these prayers there emerged a custom of keeping a procession around the physical boundaries of the parish church, a practice known as the “beating of the bounds.” As the Church has pivoted from an agrarian context, and as physical parish boundaries have dissolved (in the age of the automobile and ecclesiastical disestablishment), the keeping of a “modern” Rogationtide has shifted to a more general consideration of our corporate stewardship of those good gifts with which God has blessed us, as well as to prayers for the good prosperity of our labor—whatever line of work we’re in!

DAVE RAMSEY COURSE: Please contact Fr. Ralph if you are interested in attending a finance course. If there is enough interest, we will schedule a course for the near future.
