The Most Reverend Walter Howard Grundorf, DD, Presiding Bishop Emeritus of the Anglican Province of America and Bishop Emeritus of the Diocese of the Eastern United States, entered eternal life, Sunday, Feb. 15, 2026, after a courageous and valiant fight against cancer.

Bishop Grundorf graduated from Bob Jones University in South Carolina and did his Master’s and graduate schoolwork in the mid-1960’s. He was awarded a Doctorate of Divinity Degree, in 2005, by the Theological Commission of the Reformed Episcopal Church.

He became a member of the traditional Anglican Church movement while in graduate school and was ordained as deacon and priest, in 1966. He was elected Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of the Eastern United States (Anglican), in 1976. He served as rector of St. Michael’s Church in Knoxville, TN, from 1967-1976, then as rector of St. Paul’s Church, in Jackson, MS, where he served from 1976-1979. In 1979, he relocated to Orlando, Florida as a missionary bishop, establishing the mission Church of Saint Alban’s. Saint Alban’s is now one of the largest churches in the Traditional Anglican continuum and served as the Cathedral Church of DEUS and the Anglican Province of America (APA) during his tenure.

Bishop Grundorf was elected Diocesan Bishop of DEUS in 1995 and Presiding Bishop of the Anglican Province of America in 1998, a global fellowship of traditional Anglican churches with affiliates in Haiti, India, the Philippines, and Ecuador. He worked tirelessly to foster greater unity within the traditional Anglican continuum. In 2017, he became one of four Presiding Bishops to form the Communion of the Joint Synods, including the Anglican Catholic Church, the Anglican Church in America, the Anglican Province of America, and the Diocese of the Holy Cross. Bishop Grundorf retired as Presiding Bishop of the Anglican Province of America and Diocesan Bishop of the Diocese of the Eastern United States at the APA/DEUS Joint Synod in 2021. In 2024, Bishop Grundorf was declared Presiding and Diocesan Bishop Emeritus.

Surviving relatives of Bishop Grundorf include his devoted wife Mary Bennett Grundorf, Stephen Grundorf (Son), Walter King Grundorf (Son), Christopher Jason Grundorf (Son), Daniel Grundorf (Son), Timothy Bennett (Son), Audrey Fowler (Sister), Arnold Grundorf (Brother), 11 grandchildren, and 9 great grandchildren. He is predeceased by his parents Walter & Edith Grundorf.

Words fail to express what Bishop Grundorf, in his life and ministry, meant to all of those whom he patiently served and shepherded, who in their grief at his passing offer thanks to God for all that he was to them, and for all that he accomplished in building up Christ’s church.

Bishop Walter Howard Grundorf went to his heavenly reward on the last Sunday before Lent, on which the Anglican church remembers the theological virtue of love given from the God of love. That love shined forth in him, and his life embodied that love which is at the heart of Jesus Christ.

Prayer for the Departed

O God, whose nature and property is ever to have mercy and to forgive, receive our humble petitions for the soul of Thy servant, Walter, which Thou hast commanded to depart out of this world. Deliver him not into the hand of the enemy; neither forsake him at the last, but command him to be received by thy Holy Angels and brought to the country of paradise, that forasmuch as he hoped and believed in Thee, he may not undergo the pains of hell, but be made partaker of everlasting felicity. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

The Reception of Holy Communion

Readings

I Thessalonians 4:13-18

I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

St. John 6:37-40

Jesus said unto them, All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day. And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth upon him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

Acknowledge, we humbly beseech thee, a sheep of thine own fold, a lamb of thine own flock, a sinner of thine own redeeming. Receive him into the arms of thy mercy, into the blessed rest of everlasting peace, and into the glorious company of the Saints in light. Who livest and reignest, world without end.

The Absolution of the DeadAll Stand*

Priest. Enter not into judgment with thy servant, O Lord, for in thy sight shall no one living be justified, unless thou grant him remission of all his sins. We therefore beseech thee, let not the sentence of thy judgment press hard upon him, whom the reasonable prayer of thy faithful Christian people commendeth unto thee: but grant that by the succour of thy grace, he who while living was sealed with the sign of the Holy Trinity, may be counted worthy to escape thine avenging judgment. Who livest and reignest, world without end.

People. Amen.

Priest. I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth; and in my flesh shall I see God my Saviour. Whom I shall see for myself, and mine eye shall behold, and not another.

People. And in my flesh shall I see God my Saviour.Priest. Lord, have mercy upon us.People. Christ, have mercy upon us.Priest. Lord, have mercy upon us.

Priest and People. Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, On earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our Trespases, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen.

Priest. From the gate of hell.People. Deliver his soul O Lord.Priest. May he rest in peace.People. Amen.Priest. O Lord, hear our prayer.People. And let our cry come unto thee.Priest. The Lord be with you*People.* And with thy spirit.
